How Budget Billing Works

- When you sign up for our free Budget Billing service, we calculate your yearly bill based on last year's electricity and/or natural gas use. We then divide your yearly bill into 12 equal payments to get your monthly Budget Billing amount.
- We will review your account every three months to ensure that your Budget Billing amount reflects your actual usage and, if necessary, adjust the amount of your monthly payment so you have neither a big credit nor a large amount due when your account is balanced in the 12th month. The most common reasons for adjusting your monthly payment are changes in the number of people at home and weather that has been colder or warmer than normal.
- After balancing your account in the 12th month, your account is automatically re-enrolled; we recalculate your monthly installment and your Budget Billing year starts again.
- You can enroll anytime; your budget plan will begin with your next bill.
- You will not be charged interest if your payments are less than your actual use.

Tracking Your Budget Billing Payments

Each bill you receive will show a Budget Billing Summary (found on page 1 of your bill), which displays your plan end date, current month's installment, actual charges since you started your budget year, budget amounts billed thus far, and the difference between your actual charges and the budget amount billed.

The example below shows a Budget Billing Summary for a customer early in their budget year. So far, the customer has used more energy than they have paid for.

Budget Billing Summary			Plan End Date: 11/2020
Current Month	Actual Charges since 12/01/19	Budgets Billed since 12/01/19	Budget Balance (after payment)
190.00	823.65	570.00	253.65
